Liza Gardner Walsh : Fairy Garden Handbook before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Fairy Garden Handbook:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great book!!By Jazzie HoltI first found this book in a Cracker Barrel Old Country Store restaurant. I flipped through it and knew I had to have it as I'm working on a Fairy Ring for spiritual and tranquil space at my house. I am very happy with the ideas and descriptions in the book. They are simple and easy and great to follow and super cute when you set them up. And getting the book on was a lot cheaper than getting it in the restaurant.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. fun with fairies.By patricia keenhad fun last summer in the yard with this book. People noticed my fairy houses.7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. You have got get this bookBy Bonnie McMannFull of beautiful photos, wonderful ideals already have already done several projects, going to do a "Fairy Garden" with my granddaught when school is out.

The popularity of fairies and fairy houses has soared, as has the growing movement to get children interested in outdoor activities such as gardening. This new how-to book for parents and kids combines the best of both worlds. It includes basic information for beginning gardeners, such as soil preparation, planting, and watering, then branches into appropriate categories for every fairy gardener: making miniature gardens and terrariums that are just the right size for fairy friends; butterfly and hummingbird gardens to attract these flying friends of fairies; rock gardens; water gardens; wind chimes and prisms to add music and light to your gardens. Sprinkled throughout are bits of fairy lore and garden wisdom. Written for children, or anyone with a child's heart, and filled with color photographs, the Fairy Garden Handbook will turn curious kids into green thumbs in no time.

About the Author Liza Gardner Walsh is a children's librarian in Rockport, Maine. She has worked as high school English teacher, a writing tutor, a museum educator, and holds an MFA in writing from Vermont College. Through all these adventures, she has made tiny houses for fairies, trolls, mice, snails, and other small creatures. She lives in Camden, Maine with her two daughters, Phoebe and Daphne, and her husband Jeff.
