This book has been very helpful in identifying my Fenton cats! I even found out that I had one that was pre-Fenton (Tiffin Sassy Susie cat that is the same as the Fenton Alley Cat, but much older). Very happy with this purchase!

Great deal

This beautifully illustrated book features over 500 different cats and dogs made by the Fenton Art Glass Company in Williamstown, West Virginia, from 1933 to the present. The book includes many styles that were made in the regular line, sold through the company's gift shop, made for other companies, special orders, and creations that marked special occasions. A wide variety of special techniques were used in their production, including hand painting, iridized finishes, satin finishes, and other treatments. Variations among the mold styles of each cat and dog are explained. Information for this book was gathered from original Fenton catalogs and correspondence with the Fenton Art Glass Company, information from companies that ordered from Fenton, and individual collectors. This book is an essential reference for cat and dog lovers and all Fenton glass collectors.

About the Author Tara Jean Coe-McRitchie has been a collector of cats and Fenton glass for many years. She is a member of the Pacific Northwest Fenton Association and has written articles for their newsletter, The Nor'Wester. She also is a teacher of elementary students.
