Nancy S. Berns : Framing the Victim: Domestic Violence, Media, and Social Problems (Social Problems Social Issues) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Framing the Victim: Domestic Violence, Media, and Social Problems (Social Problems Social Issues):

"Whether you are drawn to this book because of an interest in media, social problems, or domestic violence, reading it will help you better understand the impact media stories have on our perceptions of social problems." That is how Nancy Berns introduces her book. It is a work that unabashedly examines not only domestic violence, but also the larger picture of how politics and processes shape our responses to social problems. Framing the Victim also distinguishes serious research from media, which promote entertainment, empowerment, and drama.

About the Author Nancy Berns is assistant professor of sociology at Drake University, in Des Moines, Iowa. She is the author of important papers in Gender Society and Sociological Quarterly.
