This book explores the wonderful range of tin crafting techniques used today, through 25 traditional and contemporary projects. All shown in step-by-step photographs, among the projects are delicate decorative pieces, such as ornate incense holders and an embellished picture frame, and utilitarian objects, such as a lunch box made out of tin cans and an oil-drum barbecue.

About the AuthorMarion Elliot is a well-known artist and author who works in a broad range of materials. Her distinctive wok is widely exhibited and sold in both London and New York. She has contributed to many titles and is the author of several books.
