In ONE MINUTE JOURNALING she packs each page with colorful examples and explains how the page was made (with list of supplies!). Her journaling ideas are both practical and useful. I particularly loved the page she did for her friend who had lost the cat she loved. She created a wonderful effect with rubber stamps, punches, and vellum to make a window scene with a shadowy cat; I would never have thought of crimping vellum to create a window blind! I know I will use this book a lot.19 of 20 people found the following review helpful. Don't just use photos, tell the STORY behind them!By Soozie4HimThis is a WONDERFUL book! It's just beautiful and a real pleasure to look through. I'm a beginning scrapbooker and I must admit that I'm more into journaling than scrapbooking (I'm not very artistic or creative and I'm better with words than with cutting and pasting!). You really get to know the author through this book. This is not just a book of ideas for scrapbooking - it's really about the philosophy behind scrapbooking, and the reason for it. The ideas are really good, and I learned a tremendous amount from this book. But I think even more than that, I was inspired to venture out in my own writing on my scrapbook pages!

Joanna shows you easy ways to: Crop now and journal later using "Sites of Future Journaling" Use embellishments and journaling boxes Include notes and family members' handwriting Create a page with postcards as journaling (template included) Capture the uniqueness of each of your loved ones You'll learn time-saving tips for: Jotting down the essence of any story in seconds Selecting the best paper for journaling boxes Using your computer for journaling You'll also see how to use a light box, work with vellum, add texture with chalk, and journal with Journaling Genie products.
