This book looks at what happens to paper when you throw it in the trash, and then looks at alternative things that the reader could make with the paper instead of throwing it away.

Beginning readers will be inspired by the many examples of creative reuse in this well-produced series. Each book presents several ideas (button pictures, paper-bag puppets) that don't require detailed step-by-step instructions, and one slightly more complex -- School Library Journal/Series Made Simple In the same vein as the Grow It Yourself! series, the six titles in the Trash to Treasure lineup make arts and crafts an easy, green practice for early elementary students and also challenge their reading skills. Books are broken up into their respective -- VegBooks Blog About the Author Daniel Nunn has written numerous books for young readers on a variety of topics, specializing in early years and elementary education.
