Nelson I'm a professional photographer and I bought these stickers to decorate some vintage luggage for props for HS Senior photography and for use with models. Perfect, almost, the glue is relatively weak and so I've had to apply craft glue, but for $9 how can you go wrong. Anyway, they look perfect, the kids love em and I've used the suitcase in a vintage pinup shoot and the model with the suitcases are published. From the perspective of a photographer and the use as part of a prop they complete the images perfectly, actually, the "luggage" pose are one of the most popular poses by HS Seniors. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Very poor quality By Jeremy The stickers look nice, BUT the sticker quality is very basic. These are not durable vinyl/shiny stickers you'd see on most suitcases, meaning the type that can withstand scratches or moisture. These are basically sticker cutouts that were made from a home printer that tear and fade with the slightest abuse. In a nutshell, they'll look nice on your first travel, but after that they're a torn or smeared shard of paper sticking to your luggage. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great product, great gift item... By lee whitworth Bought the stickers for my wife to apply to her antique luggage. Very nice, good material. Came packed individually in plastic, arriving in a sharp gift box. Consider this next time your gift shopping for a person that has everything but loves nostalgic items.

This box of 20 individual peel and stick luggage labels are suitable for scrapbooking, decoupage, gift wrapping and, of course the adornment of old trunks and luggage. Despite their relatively brief history, airlines have produced some of the most pleasing of all luggage labels. Their designs are bold, with a modern sensibility. We have selected for beauty, rarity, and variety, and include labels from the airlines Garuda, Scadta, Ethiopian, Jersey, Lot Roumanian and Cubana, as well as labels from larger and more familiar carriers such as B.O.A.C. and Lufthansa.
